Coralina Cataldi-Tassoni, a familiar face from Dario Argento films including OPERA, THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA and this year's MOTHER OF TEARS, recently launched a website to promote her upcoming biography. The site includes a trailer (created by Cataldi-Tassoni and DARK WATERS' Mariano Baino).

The site allows fans a chance to contribute to the book, titled CORALINA: BASED ON A TRUE LIFE, which is being written as a mix of reality and fantasy by Italian journalist Filippo Brunamonti. Via "The Contessa Contest," fans can ask Coralina a question, with "the most extraordinary one" and the actress' answer featured within the tome's pages. The winner also receives a unique signed art print and other autographed goodies.

In related news, Cataldi-Tassoni recently received the Best Actress in a Professional Movie Award at Austria's Fright Nights festival for her performance in THE DIRT, the short chiller directed by veteran genre composer Claudio Simonetti and his sister Simona. More info on that film can be found at its MySpace page and Cataldi-Tassoni's own Myspace page.
